First grade pupils will remain at school only for a short time Tuesday morning, explains Wyatt Lee Morris, J. B. Layne Elementary School principal, who advises parents of first graders to come with their children, and fill out proper registration forms and receive necessary instructions. Birth certificates are required of first grade pupils who have moved into the local district since January, or who were missed on the school census.

All grades of Junior High will register on Friday, August 30, starting at 1 o'clock—and students are requested to bring pencils and paper.

Registration will begin at 1:30 p.m. The order of business is stressed as being very important as there will be five directors elected, along with very important facts concerning the By-Laws of the Cooperative to be discussed and to vote on the proposed amendment to the By-Laws.

Chartered Bus Planned For McCamey Trip

Plans are underway for the running of one or more buses to McCamey next Friday, as the Comanche High School Indians journey to Upton County, to take on the always powerful McCamey Badgers in the opening game of the 1957 football season.

Bus tickets will sell at $6.50 per person for the round trip, and reservations can be made now at the Chamber of Commerce offices here.

A minimum of 29 persons will have to sign up—and pay their fares, before a bus will make the trip. "The reservations have been coming in slowly," says Mrs. Bernice Swindle, Chamber of Commerce secretary, "but we are getting a good many inquiries."

It is likely that only one bus is to be run—and interested parties are urged to get their deposits up at the CoC offices now. If the first bus is filled early—the first 29 to sign go, and then if sufficient interest is manifested, an effort will be made to fill a second bus.

Church Of Christ Gospel Meeting Closes Sunday

The Gospel meeting, now underway at the Comanche Church of Christ, Comanche, continues to draw good crowds, and the series of messages will continue through Sunday, Sept. 1.

Minister Bill Humble, of Oklahoma, is the evangelist.

HERE FOR HOLIDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gilley are visiting his mother Mrs. H. J. R. Gilley and his aunt, Mrs. Addie Harvey over the labor day holiday.

WELCOMES R.E.A. VISITORS

Chamber of Commerce President Ted Durham, local druggist, extended the welcome in behalf of the City of Comanche, recent host to the 19th annual REA meeting. The meeting, held at the local football field August 16, attracted an estimated crowd of 1,500 Comanche County Electric Cooperative members and guests.

Swimming Pool Closes Monday

The Comanche Swimming Pool at Lake Eanes Park, will close for the 1957 season next Monday night, Sept. 2.

The pool, one of the largest and most modern in the area, has consistently attracted large crowds of swimmers all season, since opening June 1.

Back From Indiana

Vesta Davis has returned home after a two weeks vacation trip to Indiana, where she visited her brother and family. She has reopened her dining room here.

Hustle And 'Spirit' Being Shown In Indians Workouts

The Comanche Indians, under their youthful three-man coaching staff—Head Mentor Bill Scoggins and Assistants Don Walker and Travis Henry, have been romping through twice daily workouts since Monday.

The twice-a-day schedule will continue through Monday, but will be cut to once a day when school begins Tuesday.

The '57 Indians, shy on experience, with only 6 returning lettermen—will have good weight, not as heavy as local teams the past three or four seasons, but the sophomores and juniors, sprinkled with a handful of seniors, have some pretty good sized boys.

Getting ready for the opener with McCamey, one of the State's powerhouse Class A teams, just a week off—the squad of 42 CHS riders has been working out mornings and later afternoons, acquainting themselves with the Scoggins Winger T offense—and getting plenty of contact work on fundamentals.

McCamey Strong

The McCamey Badgers dropped only two games last season—both to regional champions, Class AA Crane, and to Class A Sonora, and are expecting another strong team this season.

"We know nothing about the comparative strength of the two clubs," says Coach Scoggins, "but the Indians are showing good team spirit and hustle, and will be in there giving their best."

The Indian traveling squad, not yet determined, will be either 22 or 24 men. The Indians (Continued on back page)

The two new board members succeed M. A. Richmond, Blanket, and J. M. Foreman, Comanche, who had just completed their tenure of two terms, and were not candidates for re-election.

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION
Member 1957

We recently made a trip with Oswald Brightman, owner of the White Auto Store here, to Wichita Falls to visit the wholesale distributing headquarters of that firm.

In nearly every office of the huge warehouse, there was a neatly framed placard, bearing but a single word, "THINK".

Thinking is important and we imagine the right kind of thinking on the part of the managers of that firm had much to do with the growth of that concern from a small business with three employees to a chain of stores with hundreds of employees in nearly every important town in Texas and Oklahoma and dozens in other states of the Southwest.

We believe it is the Bible which says, "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he."

If you think with God's help you can remove mountains, you can do it, according to the Bible.

THINKING has a lot to do with athletics, believes Bill Scoggins, Comanche High School's new football coach.

Coach Scoggins has gotten out a new placard entitled, "THINKING." He plans to give each member of the squad one of the placards and will hang one in the club dressing room.

Below is Scoggins' philosophy on thinking as inscribed on the placard:

If you think you are beaten, YOU ARE.

If you think you dare not, YOU DONT.

If you think you can't, it's almost a cinch YOU WON'T.

If you think you will lose, you ARE LOST.

Out in the world we find SUCCESS begins with a fellow's will. It's all in the state of mind.

If you think you are outclassed, YOU ARE.

You have got to THINK HIGH to rise.

You have got to BE SURE of yourself before you can win a prize.

Life's battles don't always go to the stronger or the faster man.

But sooner or later, the man who WINS is the man who THINKS he can.

We agree with the philosophy expressed in the above whether applied to work or play.

We never did exactly agree with the philosophy expressed in that often quoted slogan, "It matters not whether you win or lose, but how you play the game."

It is better to lose a game played fairly than to win one by cheating.

Cheating in a game, in business, or in any other phase of life, is never justifiable. Neither is dirty playing or dirty dealing with our opponent or fellow business man.

But it seems to us, that if both sides play the game fairly, it does not matter whether you win or lose, although there should not be any criticism or blame attached.

But if you win, everyone will admit that you have a better feeling and receive more compliments.

The man who ran his best but missed the train, had to walk into town; although the other man who ran his best, but had the ability to get there in time, got to ride into town.

You might have cultivated your peanuts, according to the rules, but if you did or did not make a crop, it makes a lot of difference.

We were never permitted the privilege of visiting A&M's dressing room, but we understand that during the long drought period of an Aggie victory over Texas, there hung in the A&M dressing room a banner which read, "It matters not whether you win or lose, but how you play the game."

We understand that when Bear Bryant arrived on the scene, he tore the old banner down and mailed it to Austin and substituted one which read "Play the game hard and fair and beat H— out of Texas."

Next week is one of the most important weeks of the year, as it will mark the opening of another school term. This is important to all of us whether we have children in school or not.

It long has been conceded that the school, the church, and the home are the three most important determining factors in the life of a child.

The buildings and equipment of a school are important factors, but the most important thing about a school besides the pupils is the teacher.

We used to study an old Methodist and Management book on schools which began with the statement, "Just as is the teacher, so is the school."

James A. Garfield is credited with the saying that a log with a student on one end, and his old teacher, Mark Hopkins, on the other end, was his idea of a good college.

The point in it all is that personal contact and direct interest in the individual student by the teacher or instructor of lofty character is the main thing in any institution of learning.

Most of us older people on thinking back over our school and college days, recall some outstanding teacher more often than we do the subject matter he taught.

Who of the older Comanchians can forget Prof. Rogers; and a little later Prof. J. B. Layne; still later, Miss Ola Cunningham, Miss Myrtle Martin or Miss Agnes Graham, or Miss Hattie Brightman of those of today?

As one grows older, he is more impatient with the subtleties and shams generally. He is more concerned about the real issues of life that endure through time and eternity.

A nation's destiny is not in its learning, or the amount of information it acquires. It is in its character. The only true way to form character is through religion.

For that reason we do not believe that any school board is justified in employing any teacher who does not subscribe to some religion.

President Woodrow Wilson is credited with saying once when he was addressing a college graduating class, as follows: "I say to you intending lawyers, see that ye yield to no crookedness; and to you intending merchants, that ye be honorable in all your transactions; and to you intending journalists, that ye write only that which you know to be true; and to you ministers of the everlasting Gospel, that ye aim to win souls to Christ; and to all, that ye live soberly, righteously, and Godly."

"Manhood not scholarship, is the first aim of education," said Ernest Thompson Seton.

"Knowledge," said Daniel Webster, "does constitute not all which is contained in the large term of Education. The feelings are to be disciplined; the passions are to be restrained; true and worthy motives are to be instilled; and pure morality to be inculcated under all circumstances."

"Educate men without religion and you will make them but clever devils," once said the Duke of Wellington.

Whether any particular school is better one year than another depends upon the teacher replacement. If the new teachers are better than the outgoing ones, then the school will be better, as a rule.

But if the outgoing teachers are better than the new ones, then the school will not be as good.

The first prerequisite of a teacher is a good education. This is largely taken care of under the Gilmer-Aikin law, as a degree is now required of all teachers. Education, however, does not possess a time limit. It begins with the cradle and ends with the grave.

There is danger of an M.A. graduate of ten years ago being outstripped in knowledge of today by a bright high school student, who is well read and keeps up with television and other sources of information.

Unless a teacher to a certain extent, feels a calling to his profession, he may not be really a true teacher. He should feel somewhat the humbleness expressed in the following poem by L. P. Hill:

Lord, who am I
to teach the way To little children
day by day
So prone myself to go astray?

I teach them knowledge
but I know How faint they flicker and how low
The candles of my knowledge glow.

I teach them power to will and do
But only now to learn anew
My own great weakness thru and thru.

I teach them love
for all mankind
And all God's creatures
but I find My love comes lagging far behind.

Lord, if their guide
I still must be Oh, let the little children see Their teacher learning hard on These.

The safety of our streets this very night is the influence of their teachers and rather than the policemen the lawmakers. The safety nation, including all depends upon Christian education, said Roger Babson.

Cultural literature and knowledge for the purpose of qualifying the rising generation for patrons of good government, virtue, and happiness, best insurance any free can have, said George W. ton.

Who is really educating professor in Chicago is reported to have given following test to his pupils:

as follows: The Comanche Grade teachers now receive $97.50 per month for 9 months and out of that pay a social security tax of $4.85 per month.

The Comanche High School teachers receive $102.50 per

The minimum salary for class-

Federal Use Tax Refunds Should Be Filed Now

Administrative Officer Sam
Hamlett of the Brownwood office, reminded owners that Form 2290 Federal Use Tax Return on Highway Motor Vehicles, should be filed immediately.
The provisions of the Highway

TWO VIEWS OF THE EDSSEL four-door hardtop in the Citation series dramatically illustrate the new styling concepts which make all Edsels so vitally different. The vertical grille, dual headlights and wraparound turn indicators which follow the bumper lines, plus the concave side scallop and horizontal taillights blended into the luggage compartment lid, present a completely integrated look of tailored elegance when viewed from any angle. The Edsel will go on display in all dealer showrooms Sept. 4th.

Revenue Act of 1956 require form 2290 to be filed for all taxable vehicles for each month in which additional vehicles are put in use.

These returns, which are filed with the District Director of Internal Revenue, are due on or before the last day of the month following the month in which the vehicle is first used. The tax due must be paid when the return is filed.

The tax applies to the use of highway motor vehicles having a taxable gross weight of more than 26,000 pounds. The taxable gross weight of trucks and truck-tractors is determined according to the empty weight and the number of axles. The tax applies to the use of single-unit trucks with the empty weight of 13,000 pounds or more, and truck-tractors with empty weight of 5,599 pounds or more.

The rate of the tax for a full tax year is $1.50 per 1,000 pounds of taxable gross weight. A full years tax for one vehicle will range from $40.50 to $90, depending on its taxable gross weight. Each tax year begins July 1 and ends June 30. If the first use of a vehicle in the tax year occurs after July the tax is prorated according to the number of months remaining in the tax year.

Internal Revenue Service publication 349, "Federal Use Tax on Highway Motor Vehicles", has been prepared by the Service to answer taxpayers' questions. The booklet defines highway vehicles subject to the new tax, and contains a variety of information on the determination of taxable gross weight, exemptions, the preparation of applicable forms and returns, and the manner in which payments are to be made. These booklets and copies of Form 2290 may be obtained from the Internal Revenue Service office at the Citizens National Bank Bldg., Brownwood, Texas.

The highway vehicle use tax was levied by Congress to help defray the cost of the proposed expansion of the Nation's highways. It is effective until June 30 1972.

and their coaches plan to leave Thursday, and work out somewhere in the McCamey sector Thursday afternoon.

Pleased With Spirit

"The boys are young, but are showing much willingness and team spirit," say the Comanche coaches, who are visibly pleased with the way the boys are coming up to their expectations the first few workouts.

Running on the first unit after Wednesday's practice sessions were: Harold Pairish 182, and L. G. Holland 155, ends; Delbert Brewster 209, and Gary McCullough 182, tackles; James Mercer 180, and a two-way fight between Kenneth Henry 162, and Bob Silder 180, guards; Gary Gregory 187, center; and James Ruth 147, Joe Paul McCullough 145, Creath Davis 147, John Gleaton 180, and Gary Swearingin, fighting it out for the four starting backfield posts.

Other Squadmen

Several newcomers have been showing up well—and an additional 5 to 10 candidates are expected to start practice when school opens.

Ends: Donald Sims 162, Gayle Stewart 117, Billy Charles Wheat 168, Barney Stokes 114, and Danny Sanford 116.

Tackles: Dick Lane 185, James Johnson 144, B. J. McGinnis 160, Roger Johnson 143, and Ronald Collins 172.

Guards: Stewart Knight 142, Paul Ray McKinzie 140, Elton Swindle 108, Charles Swindle 137, and Burton Weems 206.

Centers: Jackie Colcleasure 247, Bill Meyers 142, and Tucker Loudermilk 145.

Backs: Lewis Sims 160, Mac Kirkland 102, Butch Loudermilk 144, Tommy Steele 137, John McEwing 125, Phil Mercer 115, Richard Terrell 122, Bobby Evans 150, and Jimmy Walker 118.

Two of the team's best prospects are working out daily but their capabilities cannot be used to full advantage, due to being scholastically ineligible. They are Bobby Evans, one of the squad's top performers at a halfback post, and Lewis Sims, who was due to play lots of quarterback for the locals. Both are working out with the squad, and will play "B" team ball this season, and are being counted on heavily for next year's team.

T. S. (Tip) Ross, who is serving his first term in the Texas Legislature as Representative from Comanche County, this week makes his formal announcement as a candidate for re-election, subject to the action of the Democratic Party.

Keep your buggy in good repair. I am doing some buggy painting this season and can make yours look almost like new. I also have some buggies for rent. I also do rubber tire work and horse shoeing. W. B. Garner.

Miss Mary Johnson, teacher, announces that the Fellowship School will close Friday with a genuine Comanche Stew served to the public. The term was cut to 5 months on account of lack of funds. Miss Johnson is one of the better teachers of the county, says County Superintendent W. D. Jenkins.

W. D. Jenkins this week announces as a candidate for reelection as County Superintendent. He is a graduate of the Sam Houston Normal Institute at Huntsville and is one of the leading school men of this section. He is the second person to fill the office. S. C. Findley was appointed to the office when it was created in 1907 and was elected for another full term in 1908, but was defeated by Mr. Jenkins in 1910. Findley also made a good record and may seek another term this year.

One of the most enjoyable social events of the season was a tackey party at the Methodist parsonage last Thursday evening given by the young people of the Epworth League. Also there was a beautiful mock wedding cake in honor of Miss Minnie Elkins and Prof. Oscar Killian who were attired as bride and groom.

Mrs. Larry Kittle of Newburg made a speech at the Sidney School last Friday in the interest of the Girls Tomato Club. A club was organized with Lena Langston as president and Cecil Turner as secretary.

The Sidney School has organized a literary society with Morgan Kelley as president and Noble Walker as secretary.

Uncle John Horton, who resided north of Beattie, passed away February 22 and was laid to rest at Sand Hill Cemetery.

Rowland's Mummouth Sale. — Just listen at these bargains: 12 yards good bleached domestic $1.00; 2 nice shirts for men for $1.00; these are the best grade of shirt usually offer at a dollar each. hold the people on the first night and a second performance pair; big lot of boy's knee pants, $4 pair for $1.00; 2 good bed sheets for $1.00; one lot of men's trousers, $1.00 each.

Mrs. S. W. Godbold has just returned from Cleburne where she put on her play, "Politics," and is shouting the praises of that magnificent city of Johnson County. So well received was her play, that it required two nights to satisfy the demands of the Cleburne people. Some months ago Mrs. Godbold put on another one of her plays, "The Microbe of Love" at Cleburne and it proved so popular that the people knew just what to expect when she returned with this second play. Although additional seats had been placed in the auditorium, it would not hold the people on the first night and a second performance was demanded.

With the courthouse crowded to its fullest capacity last Sunday, hundreds of people failed to get into the district courtroom to attend the Comanche County Quarterly Singing.

Last Monday was the busiest trade day the editor has seen in Comanche within several years. Thousands of people were supplied with bargains as nearly every merchant in town featured some sort of Dollar Day Bargains. It is a conservative estimate to say that 10,000 people took advantage of the Merchants' Co-Operative Bargain Day.

Shelton, who has just returned to Comanche after being absent a few years, announces that he is going to open a music studio here where sheet music and musical instruments will be on sale. Uncle Billy Carroll has received a letter from an old timer of Comanche who once was connected with The Comanche Chief. He is William A. Fields, who now edits the Hillsboro Mirror. In the letter Fields suggests that the Comanche boys of the John Wesley Hardin days have a reunion of their own at Comanche this summer. The Chief believes the idea is a good one and that those boys who stood guard here in those dangerous days of long ago should have such a reunion.

When the time for the Old Settlers Reunion comes around, why not have one day set aside for those boys who fought the outlaws who visited Comanche in the 70's. Nobody has ever done

How to Pick a New Refrigerator

What should you look for when you set out to buy a new refrigerator? First of all, you want one big enough for your family's needs and with an ample, separate freezer section that provides true zero degree temperatures.

You certainly want the refrigerator section to defrost automatically. Who would spend time and energy scraping off the frost, using pans of hot water to melt it, or emptying drip pans, if she didn't have to?

Revolving shelves like those of the new General Electric refrigerators are a big help, for they bring everything within easy reach. Items you need don't get hidden in hard-to-get-at corners.

It's also a big help if the refrigerator has shelves that can be easily adjusted for more or less space between them, as any woman knows who has tried to put a watermelon or large ham in her refrigerator.

A magnetic safety door that can be opened by a push from within, helps safeguard children against being trapped inside. By the fall of 1958 all new refrigerators will have to have safety doors—that's the law—so it's wise to buy a refrigerator that has a safety door now.

If you are aiming at the popular built-in look for your kitchen, be sure nothing protrudes from the back of the refrigerator you buy. Otherwise, you won't be able to set it flat against the wall with the front flush with other appliances and cabinets.

Suppose you want to place your new refrigerator in a corner? In that case be sure to choose one with a door that can be fully opened without allowing clearance for it. Clearance space is waste space, and often hard to keep clean.

Dublin Rodeo Now In Progress

Dublin, August 26, (Spl)—Three of the nation's top calf ropers, Jim Bob Altizer and the roping Riley brothers, Lanham and Doyle, will head up the field of top cowboy competitors who will return to Dublin to spark competition at the 18th annual Dublin World Champion ship Rodeo Wednesday through Saturday of this week.

Altizer, seventh ranking calf roper in the nation currently, finished fourth for the world's championship in the event last season and was runner-up for the championship in 1953 and fourth in 1954.

In his 16 years of professional rodeo competition he has won championship trophies from many of the nation's major cowboy contests. He won the calf roping at Cheyenne in 1953.

Altizer, who hails from Del Rio, Texas, is a calf roping specialist who will enter that event only here.

Both the Riley brothers are also calf specialists. Lanham, the elder who hails from Fort Worth, was the top money winner at Cheyenne last month, winning $3,171 first place money in calf roping. He has been a professional roper since 1937.

Doyle Riley, Ballinger, was top calf roper at the Dublin Rodeo last year. He won the Cheyenne in 1949, and won first place share of the world's largest roping purse at Madison Square Garden the first year he competed there in 1953.

Two years ago he took top calf roping at the Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth.

Top-seeded entries in the riding events at the rodeo here will be Billy Weeks, Abilene and Ira Akers of Baird.

Entering his first rodeo at Abilene as a seven-year old in 1933,

Week has been a top bronc rider for many years. He won the first championship at Cheyenne in 1947 at the rodeo's top bareback bronc rider, repeated for the bare back trophy and won the all-around championship at the Wyoming Cowboy Contest in 1952. For four years in a row he won the saddle bronc riding trophy buckle each year at the historic Pecos Rodeo.

Weeks will be out to repeat his triumph of last season here. He won the saddle bronc riding trophy buckle each year at the historic Pecos Rodeo.

Weeks will be out to repeat his triumph of last season here. He won the saddle bronc riding event here last August, and placed second in the event here two years ago.

Akers, a college trained contestant who won the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association all around cowboy championship in his junior and senior year, in his first full season of professional competition. He stands among the nation's top ten bareback bronc riders.

Akers will enter all three riding events here. Weeks will be up in bareback and saddle bronc riding.

Several other top-ranking performers also are expected to ante up their entry fees here prior to opening day of the four-day rodeo started Wednesday at 8 p.m.

Gustine Couple Visits California

Mr. and Mrs. Don Williams have returned to their home in Gustine after an extended trip visiting their daughters, Mrs. Helen Jacobs, Mrs. Bertha Smith, Mrs. Allie Mae Albin and families all of Delano, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams have made this trip by train each spring for the past three years.

The Williams say that it is just wonderful to see the many agricultural products being grown there. The huge fields of cotton, alfalfa, potatoes, onions, asparagus etc.

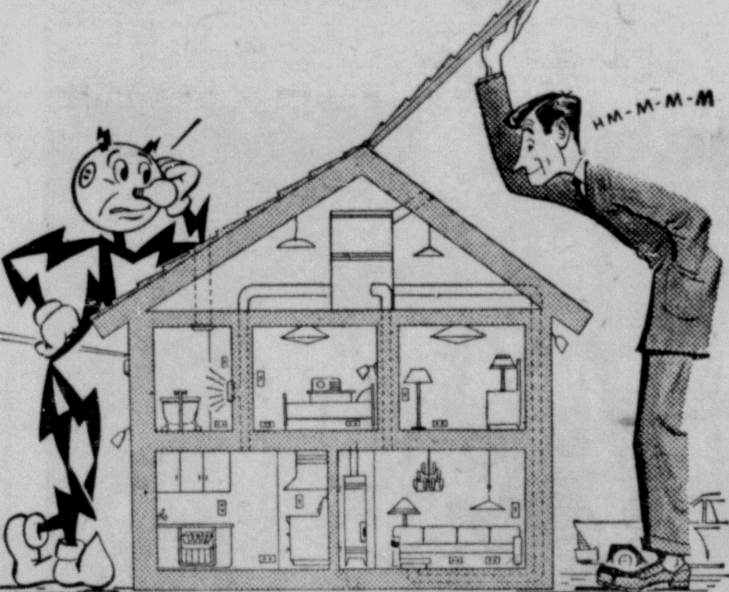

Almost anything can be grown there which is very wonderful. All of his of course is made possible through irrigation from wells and canals.

The Williams family had the privilege of visiting points along the Pacific ocean.

Their first and only great-grandchild, Karen Lynn Kautz from Long Beach, California, daughter of Mrs. Bernadine Albin Kautz visited them while they were there.

The Williams also say California is a wonderful place to visit but it is nice to be back in Texas.

School Lunch Program Facts

By Mrs. Artis Rachhels,
Lunch Room Supervisor

Schools operating under the National School Lunch Program agree to serve meals that meet certain nutritional requirements. It is the responsibility of your lunch room supervisor to plan school lunches accordingly. This lunch is referred to as a "type A" lunch.

A "type A" lunch consists of 1/2 pint of milk which must meet the minimum butterfat and sanitation requirements. It is also desirable to use milk frequently in cooking.

PROTEIN-RICH FOODS—at least a two ounce serving of cooked or canned meat, poultry or fish, or 2 ounces of cheese or 1/2 cup of cooked dry peas or beans; 4 tablespoons of peanut butter, an egg or a combination of one half of the listed quantities of each of 2 of these items.

VEGETABLES & FRUITS—At least a three fourth cup serving raw or cooked vegetables or fruit (fresh, canned, dried, frozen or both).

As studies show that vitamin A and C are frequently short in the child's diet, therefore special attention should be given to foods containing these vitamins. It is desirable to include a Vitamin C food every day and a vitamin A at least twice a week.

BREADS—At least 1 slice of bread or one serving of hot bread made of enriched or whole grain cereal. The serving of hot breads, such as muffins, biscuits or rolls should be equivalent of one slice on enriched bread.

BUTTER or MARGARINE—at least 2 teaspoons of butter or margarine. This may be used as a spread for bread or as a seasoning, or in preparation of other foods in a meal.

The school lunch program originated back in WPA days, to feed hungry children at school. The idea was good and today our lunch program has grown from a small program to a well planned program.

A part of the school lunch program is to help teach our children to eat the foods their bodies need. It has been said it's much better to build strong bodies than to

Miss Sally Lou Jones Bride Of Charles Eugene Strickland

A garden ceremony at 7:30, Friday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Lauman, united Miss Sally Lou Jones and Mr. Charles Eugene Strickland in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Slider Jones of 712 West Wardville Street and formerly of the Cross Roads Store Community, Comanche. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Strickland, Glen Rose, Star Route. Rev. E. J. Locker read the double ring ceremony before a trellis archway of greenery, lemon leaves and mums. Preceding the ceremony traditional wedding music was played and "I Love you Truly" was sung.

Miss Mary Graff was maid of honor and Mrs. Bill Morse was bridesmaid. They wore identical dresses of pink brocade nylon, designed with a scooped neckline and bustline outlined with an empire effect, set off with a dark pink chiffon sash. They carried bouquets of white carnations, imbedded in the center of nylon lace and ribbon. Their jewelry was matching ear screws and bracelets, gifts from the bride.

Benny Johnson of Cleburne was best man and Raymond McNeel of Cleburne was the groomsman.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Jones wore a navy suit with white accessories and white carnation corsage. The bride, who entered with her father down a path lighted with hurricane lamps was wearing a floor length dress of white nylon lace over taffeta, designed with a V-neckline and a row of tiny buttons reaching to the waist line. The long tapered sleeves ended in petal points over the hands. Her finger tip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and sequins. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the groom. Her white Bible was topped with an orchid showered with carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the garden. The bride's table was covered with white net over white and centered with the wedding cake. The pink napkins were engraved in silver with Sally and Charles. Punch was served with the cake.

As the couple felt for their wedding trip to Lake Murray, Oklahoma, the new Mrs. Strickland was wearing a navy and white suit with white shoes, gloves and Bag.

The Couple will make their home in Gainesville where the groom will be employed by Santa Fe.

Both the bride and groom are School and the bride is also a graduate of Isbells University of Beauty Culture.

Out-of-town guests included the brides grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Jones of Sidney.

The Mustard Barbecue Sauce, presented here, is guaranteed to boost your reputation as a barbecue chef. It's a brush-on sauce, delicious with chicken, and has a mildly sweet, spicy flavor. Use it to baste half chicken broilers cooked over a charcoal grill, for basting a roasting chicken cooked on a rotisserie, or as shown here, for basting individual poussins or Rock Cornish game hens.

Most distinguishing feature of this tantalizing sauce is that it's low in calories. Reason is that it makes use of the non-caloric sweetener, Sucaryl, rather than sugar. The calorie saving is really worthwhile. Just by the use of this sweetener, more than two-thirds of the total calories ordinarily contained in the sauce are eliminated. Be sure to tell your guests, for they won't be able to taste the difference.

Here's the recipe . . . and good luck!

MUSTARD BARBECUE SAUCE
(Low-Calorie)

2 egg yolks
1 cup skim milk
1 tablespoon flour
1 tablespoon dry mustard

1 tablespoon paprika
2 teaspoons Sucaryl solution or 16 tablets, crushed
1/2 cup vinegar

Beat egg yolks and milk together; gradually add to a mixture of the flour, mustard, paprika and Sucaryl, making a smooth paste. Cook in the top of a double boiler until thick, stirring constantly. Add vinegar gradually, and heat thoroughly. Use to baste chicken on rotisserie or barbecue grill.

Makes 1 1/2 cups of barbecue sauce. Each tablespoon contains 10 CALORIES; 0.6 gram protein; 0.5 gram fat; 1 gram carbohydrate. If made with sugar, each tablespoon would contain 34 CALORIES.

Old time revivals are passing out of the picture says the Dallas Morning News in last Sunday's paper as follows:

"Great revival meetings were common in America for more than 150 years, beginning even before the Declaration of Independence in 1776 and extending up until the start of the World War in 1914. Since the Armistice on November 11, 1918, we have but few old time revivals. 'The great evangelists of the old days were able orators and the revival singers great vocalists—not in the modern sense, but in the manner adapted to the times and needs.

(a) The Legislature shall have the authority to levy taxes to provide a State Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Fund for the officers and employees of the State, and may make such reasonable inclusions, exclusions, or classifications as it deems advisable. The Legislature may also include officers and employees of judicial districts of the State who are or have been compensated in whole or in part directly or indirectly by the State, and may make such other reasonable inclusions, exclusions, or classifications of officers and employees of judicial districts of this State as it deems advisable. New Collection Boasts Beauty of Teak Teak is beautiful, but its price is an orientation being used ever more in the furniture industry for its great strength and its high grain pattern, it has been a principal furniture wood in Burma, Java, and French Indo-China. The teak tree grows in a generally available mangrove which must be harvested only from the true mangrove areas of America and Africa. There are considerable large trees in the mangrove's pink-tinged bark and medium pores, yellow with a texture as "masculine" as the fine storage pieces above are part of a complete group of bedroom and living room furniture and living with a Danish feel.

Matching dimensions placed side by side, provide a single surface. And the fronts are particularly interesting to the direction of the grain, as characteristic of the teak, you'll see that the grain runs horizontally, in fact. Further, in the teak is "book-matched"—that is the grain pattern is so joined that it forms a complete, delightfully abstract "figure" on each door. In the chest, the grain pattern is used "at random" (slip-matched), but great verve is attained because the swoop of the grain is reversed on the bottom drawer.

Wood beauty like this is possible in volume today because of "bonded wood" construction. This revolutionary method of the ancient art of veneering gives flat wood areas great stability and strength. These bonded surfaces permanently retain their place and their beauty. The pulls are as romantic in sound and history as teak. Easily grasped shafts, they are carved out of rosewood. Used as an accent, their darker wood contributes to the harmony of the total design—in which metal pulls, for instance, could look garish.

Casually tapered hardwood legs are firmly braced with supporting stretchers, fashioned in a favored modern manner that adds a feeling of lightness as well as strength to substantial pieces such as these. In accord with the best in modern design, nowhere here is there a hint of superfluous ornamentation. Instead, factors of function and convenience are amply provided—and express in lines of greatest simplicity and in the enduring beauty of natural hardwoods.

Dress Revue Held At Tarleton; Winners Listed

Four pretty girls in pretty dresses they made themselves were judged the outstanding 4-H seamstresses in District Eight Wednesday at Tarleton State College in Stephenville.

Showing poise and grace as well as their sewing skill the girls modeled their dresses before several County Home Demonstration Agents in a dress revue which was open to the public. Four were selected to represent District Eight at the Texas 4-H Dress Revue during the State Fair in Dallas this year.

Representing Milam County was Mary Ellen Richter who won a blue ribbon with her plaid school and party dress.

Miss Margaret Hlavaty of Hill County was another. She wore a wine-red party dress.

Completing the quartette which will go to the state finals is Karen Linberg of Granfills Gap in Bosque County and Jan Tongate of Zephyr in Brown County.

A fifteenth girl, Carol Lange of Westphalia, representing Falls County, was selected as an alternate in case one of the four top winners is unable to attend the finals.

Mrs. Lester Pryor, vice president of the District Eight Home Demonstration Agents presented the awards and Miss Mattie Walker, head of the Home Economics Department at Tarleton State, did the commentary on the dresses as they were modeled.

The dress revue drew entrants from 14 counties and was the climax of a year on instruction on clothes making by County Home Demonstration Agents. The other girls in the contest who won second and third place ribbons included Mary Beth Haynes of De Leon who was a blue ribbon winner and will be the second alternate.

All 14 girls who entered the dress revue had previously entered and won 4-H dressmaking contests in their own counties.

George Hamilton, Former Resident, Dies in Ft. Worth

Contributed

We are saddened to have to announce the death of George M. Hamilton at 10:45 a.m. on August 22, 1967, in Fort Worth.

George had not been in the best of health for some years, although he had remained as active as his condition permitted. For the last several months he had been confined to his home. During the last few days he was hospitalized.

His connection with Cameron & Co. began in July 1914, and continued until his death. He managed various retail yards, but his longest and best service was with the oil field division, in which he was a special representative.

George was very loyal to Comanche, where he was born July 22, 1883, and wherever he was he could find somebody with Comanche connections.

His first regular job in Comanche was with J. N. Farmer Lumber Co., and after several years he went to H. H. Hardin Lumber Co., from which job he joined Wm. Cameron Co. in 1914.

He joined the Baptist Church in Fort Worth early in his married life, and his funeral was held at the church, with Dr. Carl Moore preaching the sermon.

His immediate family are his wife and two sons, George, of Prudential Insurance Company in Houston, John of the Fort Worth Press, and Mrs. E. E. Anthony of Comanche.

Controls for Walnut Caterpillar on Pecans—The Walnut Caterpillar has been reported infesting a few pecan orchards the past two weeks. The young worms are reddish white-striped with black heads and are generally found feeding on the Pecan leaves during July and August. They feed in colonies but do not form webs like the Fall Webworm. The present generation of Walnut Caterpillars should have run its course. If a new generation develops or the present Caterpillars are found in sufficient numbers to develop or the present Caterpillars are found in sufficient numbers to defoliate portions of the trees, the extension Entomologists advise that the control measures be employed. Using 2 lbs.—50 per cent Wettable DDT powder per 100 gallons of water or 2 lbs.—15 per cent wettable Parathion powder per 100 gallons of water or 3 lbs Lead Arsenate per 100 gallons of water.
